MAY 2012

A world class venue opens its doors to badminton players of all ages and on-court ability for a big weekend of lighthearted badminton competition where the emphasis is on fun & playing out friendly rivalries in a relaxed, highly sociable arena!

Do I have to be good to play at a Bonanza?

Of course not! Whether you're new to badminton, a casual court timer looking to compete for the first time, a seasoned pro on the club circuit or a league standard player, there's a competition to suit you... but, NO COUNTY PLAYERS please!

4 levels of relaxed gameplay to enter

Choose which standard is right for you based upon your current badminton ability...

Social STANDARD

If you are a beginner, new to badminton, play for fun or casually with friends but have never competed in a badminton tournament then the social category is designed for you. Players who are members of a 'club' or have played ANY formal competitive badminton cannot enter this category.

Only £6
per event entered

Club STANDARD

If you are a member of / or play / attend club nights at a badminton club of any size or structure BUT have not played in any local league matches or above standard within the past 3 years, then enter this category.

Only £11
per event entered

League STANDARD

If you have played in local league matches BUT not been lucky enough to represent your COUNTY in the past 3 years, then you are able to compete in this category. Players who have been a member of any national squad at any age group at any time in their career are not eligible.

Only £11
per event entered

Junior

Grade 1 and 2 players cannot enter the Bronze Category. Ungraded? Then enter Social Category

Bronze – £6 per event entered Silver – £11 per event entered

Enter online @ www.badmintonengland.co.uk/Echo

* 'Club' is deemed any regular on court playing session with a paid enrollment and/or membership process. Please note: No Strings Badminton sessions are not considered 'CLUB'. BADMINTON England reserve the right to adjust individual player entries based upon prior knowledge.
